1. Recruits for the Militia are placed on active duty only after receiving two years' training in special schools.
2. A Militia post has been established in each village. Militiamen are assigned to one post for only four to five months; these frequent transfers are designed to prevent them from forming friendships with the local inhabitants.
3. The Militia is described as well armed and equipped.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
